

MARCHING TO VICTORY

Ottawa, Ont. July 31.—The Conservatives of Canada will carry on such a campaign this year as has never been seen or heard of in Canada. It is proposed that five September 18; three Rivers, September 19; Montreal, September 20; the leaders of Dominion politics 21; shall make a tour of the whole country, stopping at all the large cities to hold at Toronto, London, Peterborough and important centres from coast to coast, Winnipeg, Regina and Calgary, but for the purpose of holding meet the dates have not been fixed.

This plan has been talked about for some time and it was known that the date would be in the month in which the campaign would take place, but up until this morning the dates were not known officially and before leaving for the east on a trip for his

British Columbia. Such a company of strong earnest speakers never started ve information.

The Emancipation Of Terrible Mine Disaster
The Turks

Berlin July 31.—The Turkish veil, which has for ages hidden the traditional beauty of the Turkish woman, has been torn away in the week of the old regime and to-day according to dispatches from Turkey thousands of unveiled women are parading the streets rejoicing in the new freedom.

The innovation is the most startling in the history of the Ottoman Empire, is being welcomed by the men who cheer the unveiled women at every opportunity. The whole outward appearance of the empire has been changed. On every hand the smiling faces of women appear instead of the somber faces that hid them.

The most remarkable feature of the political upheaval in Turkey, which has just resulted in the granting of a constitution by the Sultan, has been the participation of hundreds of thousands of women. The women, who signalled for a revolution, the privy of harems, tore off the veils and marched bravely through the streets.

The women to abandon their devils were shown at Monastir, the hotbed of the revolution. The command of the Koran that women should appear veiled the last to give way, and he was carried down with it about forty feet.

Fortunately at this point there was a small cliff, under which he was carried and there he remained in safety.

"We will help to make the world safe for beauty by this act," the priest declared.

Many remarkable scenes greeted the创新的 change, but without exception the innovation is approved.

Constantinople, July 31.—The principal feature of the situation here is that of day was that Abdul Hamid II had to proclaim himself Emperor, abandoning the title of Sultan, and in some quarters was broadly held that the whole world was part of a movement that to discredit the new minister by provoking serious disorders, crime and violence, thus paving the way for imperial interference.

Members of the Young Turks and representatives of the Turkish press protested to the Grand Vizier again at the release of criminals. As yet, it is said, the pasha has taken no further action in the matter, although the rumor is current that the Young Turks will compel his resignation and Kamil Pasha in his place.

The military commander-in-chief of Adra-naple has been dismissed by the government.

Young Turks' release from office has heralded with delight both by the troops and private citizens.

The sultan was enthusiastically received by the populace to-day including the Selamlak at Hamidiye Mosque, facing the palace.

Excitement continues at fever heat and the officials of the old regime are being rapidly thinned out.

THE SILENT MAN

The prophets of disaster at the British end of the Canadian cable service foretell a mutiny in India more terrible than that of 1857. Well, there is a man in India named Kitchener. He is reported to be the chief object of his attention for some years. He likewise had the reputation of attending to such matters in a pretty thorough-going fashion and of preparing for trouble before the ball opens. Lord Kitchener has been uttering no shricks of alarm. Until they are proven wrong Britons generally will interpret his silence as meaning that Kitchener is ready. If he were not ready there would have been something doing in the military quarters in London. If he is ready there will be something doing among the mutineers whenever they see fit to precipitate matters. — Bulletin.

SHOOT HIS BROTHER.

Ingersoll, Ont., July 30.—In Deneham township Sydney Haycock, a thirty-year-old son of Mr. Haycock, who shot his brother with a rifle, was handling a .42 rifle. The bullet hit the head behind the left eye, and lodged near the left eye.

Indomitable Carries Mail

Quebec, July 31.—The indomitable, on leaving, took several bags of mail. This is not customary with warships, but the battleship will attempt to break the world's record in carrying mails across the Atlantic thus specifically signaling a fast trip from Canada to Britain. The mail left Quebec post office 12:30 a.m. July 29.

Boxing

JOHNSON BEAT TAYLOR, London, July 31.—Jack Johnson, English heavy weight champion, who claims the world's title because often my Burns' refusal to meet him, stopped Ben Taylor, one of the best English heavy weights in the eighth round and on the gas generated in the night is very deadly, it was thought there was little chance of saving them. As soon as Michael brought out his best Lindsay, Manager Hard and an attendant Shinner to the second round, they immediately got into a hole in a rescue party. Despite the valiant manner they brought forth twenty of them by the middle of the attack moon white drawn and haggard from a living tomb. Their escape was miraculo-us.

KETCHELL BEAT KELLY, San Francisco, July 31.—For two seconds Hugo Kelly gave out flat-shell the fight of his life. When the men went to their corners at the close of the second round Kelly seemed to be in the lead. He stood toe to toe with Ketchell and pumped the last best kind of right benders into Ketchell's chin. He smacked Ketchell around the face with both hands and had him bleeding at the nose. This caused Ketchell to swing wildly while he himself wasted very few punches. The third round started and was all over in twenty five seconds. Ketchell, with a thin trickle of blood coming from his nose stepped briskly forward met Kelly two thirds of the way across the ring and each of them laid out with straight left and right at each other's faces simultaneously. (Re-ltd) Kelly tried to follow with one of his right hand body blows, but Ketchell stepped back. Kelly'll made use of his left and made a motion as though to strike with his right hand; then he suddenly drew his right foot back and got a vicious left swing for nothing.

He caught Kelly squarely on the jaw and dropped him to his haunches at Lord Kelly was done for. He lay there quivering until he was counted out, when they picked him up and carried him to his corner.

Oil Well Ablaze

London, July 31.—In the House of Commons, A. E. W. Mason called attention to the Asiatic immigration to Canada. Seelye replied that the future of the Empire depended on the steps we now took. The government warmly appreciated the measure in which the Canadian government met them.

Seelye said there would be a common agreement reached and appealed to the home not to adopt a superior attitude and say that any citizen of the Empire should be free go to any part thereof. Colonies must be allowed to exclude whom they thought not desirable, though, at the same time he urged the colonies to treat with the utmost generosity the Asiatics already there. He agreed that the question should go to the Imperial Secretary.

Breathes Friendship

Quebec, July 31.—In a letter to Gray, Vice-President Fairbanks, of the United States, says it gave him much pleasure to participate in the tercentenary celebration and if any utterance of his will tend to strengthen or natural attachment between people of Canada, he will feel repaid for his visit. He regards it as a commitment upon those charged with responsibility in both countries, and his sense of duty runs with his personal desire to do whatever may be reasonably done to augment good feeling in the two countries.

Admiral Berry, who represented France at the celebration, in a letter to Lord Grey says extreme temerity was shown by the Prince of Wales remonstrances of esteem and sympathy received from Lord Grey, from members of the Government and from Canadian people touched him with profound and assure the Soixante-Cent that the French Government will be grateful for the very warm welcome given to its representative. "The crown it will see a new test of the cordiality of the relationship between both our countries.

In conclusion he says the French nation respects him to express their sentiments of profound respect and gratitude with their best wishes for the prosperity of Canada.

Terrible Tragedy

Seattle, July 31.—Jesse Filer a gunman, killed his eight-year-old daughter Hard and Mrs. Dennis Nihon a confinement patient; fatally wounded his wife, and seriously wounded Mrs. Ethel Warren, his sister-in-law last night. He then turned his revolver upon himself and committed suicide.

Filer and his wife had been separated and he had forbidden to go near the house he had left the city to the place third floor in the basement. After finding his wife seated in a front room he started shooting. The lights went out after the first shot and he had to light matches to see the victims to shoot as he drove his daughter and Mrs. Nihon into the street where he shot them.

She Levanted

Los Angeles, July 31.—Determined that he would not be separated from his wife, who is a leper, and has been confined at the county hospital, Brigadier-General David M. Wardwell, a seared veteran of two wars, has strolled from the institution and rushed her across the Mexican border, where he will live with her until death separates them. No attempt will be made to bring them back, as the officials say they both threatened to end their lives if forced to live apart.

MR. BORDEN'S SPLENDID LEADERSHIP Mail & Empire

Of Mr. Borden the people of Canada have good reason to be proud. A sturdy Canadian, a man of honor, a master of the political situation, a fine speaker, and a great parliamentary tactician, Mr. Borden possesses the qualities which will make him one of the ablest of our Premiers when called, as he soon must be, in the highest office in the gift of his fellow citizens. During the session just closed the leader of the Opposition has given new evidences of his power as a public man. He has fought earnestly against graft, and has been particularly happy and highly successful in his contest with the ruling politicians in behalf of British Parliamentary rule and of electoral liberty.

When Parliament met, the ministers were of opinion that they could conceal the robberies by the simple process of refusing information and blocking inquiry. They mistook the man with whom they had to deal. Their first refusal to produce the written evidences of the system of graft was met in such a way
